

Chinika Snyder Director, Revenue Cycle

Chinika is a talented healthcare leader with significant success in creating and implementing operational strategies with over 25 years of experience in Revenue Cycle, Payer Operations, Administration, Healthcare Management and Hospital Receivables Management. She is well versed in Revenue Cycle, Claims Processing, Hospital, Acute Care, Sub-Acute, Long-term Care Operations and Physician Practice Management and a skilled project manager and team leader recognized for the ability to effectively organize and deploy resources.

Chinika is currently Director of Revenue Cycle for TPC. She is proficient in identifying and coordinating all aspects of establishing, planning and implementation of initiatives at all levels to solve problems for TPC Members. A performance driven leader with experience leading teams and managing results, Chinika provides value through Member savings and operational efficiency.

Chinika is a graduate of both Florida A&M University with a bachelor's degree in Healthcare Management and an MBA in Accounting from Dallas Baptist University. She has worked in all aspects of Revenue Cycle in the healthcare delivery system.